

I am asking that the current law not be changed. I used to receive calls on a daily basis and since the law went into effect I cannot remember the last time I received such a call. There are many other means available to solicit business without invading our privacy. It takes more effort, time and money to achieve results instead of taking the lazy way out and cold calling.